Section 1 - Name
The name of this corporation shall be the Institute for Safety and Health Management, hereinafter called the ISHM.

Section 2 - Purpose
The principal purposes of the ISHM, as more fully set forth in its Articles of Incorporation are to:

A. Establish the minimum academic and experience requirements necessary to receive certifications established pursuant to resolution by the Board of Directors.

B. Determine the qualifications of applicants and arrange, control, and conduct investigations and examinations to verify the qualifications of candidates for certificates to be issued by the ISHM.

C. Grant and issue to qualified applicants, a certificate and maintain a directory of the holders of all valid certificates.
D. Establish requirements for the continuance of certification. The ISHM also has such powers as are now or may hereafter be granted by the Not for Profit act of the State of Arizona and determine compliance of certificate holders with approved requirements.

E. Communicate and, where appropriate educate public and private agencies, groups, and individuals with respect to matters of common interest; and it will inform employers, public officials, the public, management, engineering, and related practitioners of the benefits of certification.

Section 3 – Funds
The funds for carrying out the purposes of this corporation shall be obtained primarily by fees from persons applying for or being examined for credentials approved by the Board of Directors from designees paying an annual renewal fee of said designations, from persons applying for reinstatement, and from persons required to pay any penalty fee which may be established for delinquent payment of the annual renewal fee. The fees to be charged under the provisions of this Section shall be set by the Board of Directors and shall be limited to such amounts as are necessary to carry out the provisions of Section 4 of this Article.

F. Section 4 - Application of Funds
The funds obtained under the provisions of Section 3 shall be applied to defraying the expenses of the administration of this corporation and such other functions and activities which are within the scope of Section 2 of this Article, including the publication of such information relating to requisites for the designation of Certified Safety and Health Managers.

G. Section 5 - Definitions
For the purposes of these Bylaws, the terms listed below are defined as follows:
A. Credential - A certification or designation denoting that an individual has met a set of standards and demonstrated knowledge established by the ISHM.

B. Certification - A credential denoting that an individual has met a set of standards and demonstrated knowledge by examination after completing an application and evaluation process and continues to meet requirements to retain the credential.

C. Designation - A credential denoting that an individual or organization has met standards established to achieve and retain the credential and demonstrated such compliance through an application and evaluation process.

D. Certificate - A document issued by ISHM to an individual indicating that the individual named in the document has met the requirements for the credential named therein. Possessing a certificate does not necessarily imply that the holder of the certificate is currently certified.

ARTICLE II

D. The Treasurer shall be elected to a two-year term of office.

Section 3 - Removal and Resignation

Any officer elected (or appointed) by the Board may be removed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all Directors currently serving on the Board whenever in its judgment the best interests of the ISHM would be served. An officer may resign upon providing prior written notice.

Section 4 - Chair

The Chair shall be the ranking officer of the corporation. The Chair shall oversee the affairs of the corporation and shall preside at all meetings of the Board. The Chair may sign in this corporate capacity, with the Secretary or any other proper officer of the corporation authorized by the Board, certificates of qualification, deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or any other instrument which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by these Bylaws or by statute to some other officer or agent of the corporation; and in general shall perform all duties as may be prescribed by the Board.

Section 5 - Vice Chair
In the absence of the Chair or in the event of her or his inability to act, the Vice Chair shall perform the duties of the Chair, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all restrictions upon the office of Chair.

Section 6 - Secretary

The Secretary shall oversee the keeping of the minutes of all Board and Executive Committee meetings, periodically review the operation of the Corporation’s offices to see that all necessary records are properly maintained and that applications are being properly processed and perform such other duties as may be assigned by the Chair.

Section 7 - Treasurer

The Treasurer may be required for the faithful discharge of his or her duties in such sum and with such sureties as the Board shall determine. The corporation shall pay all fees in connection therewith. The Treasurer shall have charge of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the corporation and for the deposit of all such monies in the name of the corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Article VII of these Bylaws, and in general perform all duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Chair. Any and all of the above duties, while not entirely delegable to another officer of the corporation, may be carried out by the CEO so long as such duties are overseen by the Treasurer.

Section 8 – Chief Executive Officer (hereafter referred to as CEO (Rev 02/2015)

A. The CEO shall be an appointed officer, selected by the Executive Committee and confirmed by the Board. The CEO shall be paid an annual salary, to be set by the Chair and confirmed by the Board; may be required to be bonded, and under the general supervision of the Chair, shall manage and supervise the business of the Board’s operations and personnel.

B. After concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the Board, the CEO may be removed upon written notification from the Chair. The Chief Executive Officer may request an opportunity for a formal hearing before the Board prior to being removed by an affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the directors currently serving on the Board. The CEO may resign upon providing prior written notice to the Chair.

C. The CEO, with the concurrence of the Executive Committee, shall employ, supervise, and maintain such technical, administrative and clerical personnel as deemed necessary to carry out his or her duties and operations.

Section 9 - Employees

ISHM may employ such technical, administrative and clerical personnel as it shall deem necessary to carry out its duties and operations.

Section 10 - Consultants

ISHM may engage the services of consultants as deemed necessary by majority vote of the Board.

ARTICLE V

CERTIFICATION

Section 1 - General Provisions

A. Application for certification shall be submitted on forms prescribed by the Board.

B. Except as provided elsewhere in these Bylaws and by resolutions of the Board, applicants shall successfully complete examinations to determine qualifications for certification.

C. Applicants shall be of good moral character and furnish the names of references who shall have knowledge of their work assignments and character.

D. Applicants shall furnish documentation of sufficient academic education and work experience of a grade and character to meet the prescribed requirements.
E. Applicants shall otherwise comply with the Procedures for Certification as adopted by the Board.

F. Applicants meeting ISHM education, experience, and character certification requirements will not be denied the opportunity to sit for the certification exams. (Added 12/04)

G. Applicants identifying themselves as being disabled as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act will be provided with the necessary resources and accommodations necessary for them to sit for certification exams. (Added 12/04)

Section 2 - Continuance of Certification

Certificates must be maintained in a current and valid status as specified by the Continuance of Certification requirements established by the Board and as specified in Article XIII of these bylaws.

Section 3 - Board of Examiners

The Board shall constitute the Board of Examiners for the purpose of examining and certifying applicants. The Board may appoint qualified personnel to determine applicant qualifications to sit for the exams.

All documents pertaining to applicants and certificants will be held confidential and may be released only upon written permission of the applicant or certificants. (Added 12/04)

Section 4 – Independence from Training

While recognizing that some candidates may benefit from examination preparation courses, ISHM does not provide, endorse or require such courses.

ISHM shall not offer or provide training or aid others in the preparation of such services that could compromise the confidentiality and impartiality of the examination and certification process. No one who has direct access to examination materials or content may provide certification preparation training or assistance to potential certification candidates for the purpose

ISHM Bylaws 500.05

Rev. 05/2018
of obtaining certification. This does not preclude training for continuing education activities or teaching safety management courses. (Added 06/2009)

ARTICLE VI

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1

Any person, his or her heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, made a party to any action suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that such person was an officer, director or employee of the corporation shall be indemnified by the corporation against all expenses, including attorney’s fees and judgments, but not to exceed the limits of reasonable amounts of insurance which shall be carried by the corporation for this purpose, which are actually and necessarily incurred in connection with the defense of any such action, suit or proceeding, which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for intentional and willful misconduct in the performance of his or her duties. Such right of indemnification shall be in addition to any other rights to which she or he may be entitled under the Bylaws, agreement, votes, or otherwise.

ARTICLE VII

CONTRACTS, CHECKS, DEPOSITS AND FUNDS

Section 1 - Contracts

The Board may authorize in writing, the CEO, or any member, employee, or officers so authorized by these Bylaws, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of the corporation.

Section 2 - Checks, Drafts, Etc.

ISHM Bylaws 500.05

Rev. 05/2018
All checks, drafts, or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation, shall be signed by such officer, member, employee of the corporation and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by the Board, such instruments shall be signed by the CEO or by the Treasurer. (Revised 10/04)

Section 3 - Deposits

All funds of the corporation, except for petty cash, shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Board may select.

ARTICLE VIII

BOOKS, REPORTS, AND RECORDS

Section 1 - Books and Records

The corporation shall keep correct and complete records of accounts and shall also keep minutes of the proceedings of its Board, Board of Examiners, and committees having any of the authority of the Board and shall keep at the registered or principal office a record giving the names and addresses of all persons holding a valid certificate issued by the ISHM. All financial records of the corporation may be inspected by any Person Certified by ISHM, or his/her agent for any proper purpose after giving adequate notice to the CEO.

Section 2 - Reports

On or before March 31 of each year, a brief report of the activities of this corporation in the annual period ending December 31 shall be prepared by or at the direction of the Chair of this corporation and shall be presented to all Directors. Additionally, a fiscal report shall be prepared and distributed to the Directors. Board members shall be provided, at a minimum, with quarterly updates of the Corporations financial status. (Revised 12/04)
A. Records regarding applicant certification shall be kept by the CEO in a secure location as follows:

a. Original applications for certification shall be kept for two years. (Added 12/04)

b. Application records may be kept electronically or as the original document. (Added 12/04)

c. Each applicant’s score on the certifying exam shall be kept for the period they maintain certification. (Added 12/04)

ARTICLE IX

FISCAL YEAR

Section 1

The fiscal year of the corporation shall begin on the first day of January and end on the last day of December.

ARTICLE X

CORPORATE SEAL AND CORPORATE SYMBOL

Section 1 - Corporate Seal

(This section transferred to Policies and Procedures Manual 07-15)

ARTICLE XI

WAIVER OF NOTICE

Section 1

Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws of this corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons

ISHM Bylaws 500.05

Rev. 05/2018
entitled to such notice whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice, except as provided in Article XII of these Bylaws. Attendance at any legally convened meeting of the Board shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting.

ARTICLE XII

AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION AND BYLAWS

Section 1

The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of this corporation may be altered or amended by action authorized by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board at any regular meeting, or at a special meeting called for such purpose provided that at least thirty (30) days written notice of the intended action is given to all members of the aforesaid Board, and further provided that no alteration or amendment of the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws or procedures for Certification of this corporation shall have the effect of requiring or permitting anything which, in the opinion of counsel designated by the Chair of this corporation, would result in the disqualification of the corporation under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE XIII

EXPIRATIONS AND RENEWALS

Section 1 - Expirations

Each certificate issued by the Board shall expire annually on a date set by the Board and shall become invalid after that date unless renewed. The ISHM shall mail or electronically send (Rev 06/2009) a notice to every person holding a valid certificate stating the amount of fee required for its renewal. Such notice shall be sent (Rev 06/2009) to the last known address of each certificate holder at least thirty days in advance of the expiration date.

ISHM Bylaws 500.05

Rev. 05/2018
Section 2 - Renewals

A. Payment of the annual renewal fee is due on or before the expiration date of the certificate. If payment is not received within one (1) month (Rev 05/18) after the expiration of the certificate, the certificate shall be considered invalid. Reinstatement of certificate holders whose certificates have become invalid may be allowed in circumstances deemed appropriate by the Board and in accordance with procedures established by the Board.

B. The certificates of certificate holders who do not meet the Continuance of Certification requirements established by the Board shall be considered invalid. Reinstatement of certificate holders failing to meet Continuance of Certification requirements may be allowed in circumstances deemed appropriate by the Board and in accordance with procedures established by the Board.

ARTICLE XIV

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Section 1 - Grounds

The Board shall have the power to reprimand a certificate holder, suspend, refuse to renew, or revoke the certificate of any certificate holder who is found guilty of one or more of the following:

A. Obtaining a certificate or a renewal of a certificate through the use of fraud or deceit. The making of any fraudulent, misleading or untruthful statements in any application or documentation submitted to the Board by any applicant, candidate or certification holder in an effort to obtain, retain or renew certification; or

B. Violation of one or more of the provisions in the ISHM Code of Professional Conduct; or
C. A criminal conviction of a felony, misdemeanor, or petty offense for acts done in connection with activities for which the certificate was issued whether the conviction arises by a finding of guilty by a judge or jury, a plea of guilty, or a plea of nolo contendere; or

D. Unauthorized or illegal use of a certificate issued by the ISHM; or

E. Unauthorized or illegal use of any ISHM document

F. Unauthorized possession, distribution or use of any ISHM testing or examination materials including but not limited to, copying and/or reproduction of any ISHM examination questions or test related items; or disclosing to others any examination question or test related item.

G. Unauthorized or illegal use of any registered certification mark or logo owned by the ISHM.

Section 2 - Procedure

A. The CEO of the Board shall be solely responsible for bringing a charge against a certificate holder based on the ground(s) enumerated in Section 1. A charge shall be in writing and shall not be acted upon until filed with the Secretary of the ISHM. Any person may present to the CEO information relating to any person holding a certificate issued by the ISHM who may be guilty of one or more of the grounds enumerated in Section 1.

B. All charges shall be reviewed by a quorum of the Executive Committee within Sixty (60) days of receipt of the charges by the Secretary. All activities related to the filing, investigation, and resolution of charges shall be held confidential. The Board, its employees, agents and representatives shall not reveal the identity of any person who gives information to the ISHM that a certificate holder may be guilty of one or more of the acts enumerated in Section 1 unless the person giving that information authorizes the ISHM in writing to reveal her or his identity or unless revelation of that person's identity is directed by a court order. The Executive Committee shall review the charge(s) as presented by the CEO to determine if the charge(s) relates to grounds specified in Section 1 and states sufficient facts to call for a hearing on the charge(s) before a quorum of the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee may request additional information from the CEO, but the investigation of the charges and prosecution of any charge(s) against a certificate holder shall be the sole responsibility of the CEO. A charge which does not allege a violation under Section 1 and is not supported by sufficient evidence to establish a preliminary finding that probable cause exists relating to one or more grounds enumerated in Section 1, or which is more appropriately the subject of a different forum or court proceeding, or which is found to be untrue upon review by the Executive Committee, or which would create a conflict of interest if reviewed by the ISHM, or prosecution of which would interfere substantially with any state or Federal government investigation or prosecution shall, at the discretion of the Executive Committee, be stayed or dismissed. (Revised 12/04)

Rev. 05/2018

C. A charge, unless dismissed or stayed by the Executive Committee, shall be heard by a quorum of the Board not later than the second regularly scheduled Board Meeting following final review and a decision by the Executive Committee described in subparagraph B, above.

D. The date and place of any hearing on a charge shall be at the offices of the ISHM or such other place fixed by a quorum of the Executive Committee. A copy of the charge or charges, together with a notice of the date, time and place of the hearing on the charge or charges, shall be personally served on the charged certificate holder or mailed to the last known address of the charged certificate holder at least 30 days prior to the date fixed for the hearing. The Board may presume that service at the last known address, according to the records of the ISHM's official records, is adequate service for the purposes of implementing disciplinary procedures. Service by mail shall be certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice of hearing shall advise the person charged that his or her right to a hearing may be forfeited if, without good cause, she or he fails to appear at the hearing personally or by his or her designated representative. If the person charged fails or refuses to appear, the Board may proceed to hear and determine the validity of the charges and take all appropriate action in accordance with the provisions of this article.

E. At the hearing, the person charged shall have the right to have a record made of the proceedings, copies of which may be obtained by the person charged at their own expense if any expenses are associated with the preparation of such record. The person charged shall have the ISHM Bylaws 500.05 right to call, examine and cross-examine witnesses which appear at the hearing. Any witnesses appearing on behalf of the person charged shall appear at the sole expense of the charged certificate holder. The person charged shall have the right to introduce evidence in his or her own defense if that evidence is determined by the Board to be relevant and material regardless of its admissibility in a court of law. At the hearing on the charge the rules of evidence and procedure which apply to state and federal courts shall not apply.

F. The person charged shall have the right to submit a written statement at the close of the hearing, and the person charged shall have the right to receive the written decision of the Board.

G. At any hearing the person charged may appear personally or be represented by her or his authorized representative.

H. The Board may appoint an ad hoc committee, consisting of no fewer than three members to hear the charges. The decision of that committee may be reviewed by the Board on its own motion but otherwise the decision of that committee shall be final subject to the provisions of subparagraph J, below. If after the hearing, a majority of a quorum of the Board or majority of the ad hoc committee votes in favor of sustaining the charges, the Board or the ad hoc committee may dismiss the charge, or reprimand the applicant, candidate or certificate holder, or suspend, refuse to renew or revoke the certificate or suspend or terminate the certification process of the person charged or take such other or further action as is deemed appropriate. If the certificate of the person charged is suspended, such suspension shall be for a period not longer than 10 years. If the certificate of the person charged is revoked, such revocation shall be permanent. A person whose certificate has been revoked may apply for reinstatement only once every two years.

I. The Board, for reasons it may deem sufficient, may reinstate or reissue a certificate to any person whose certificate has been suspended, not renewed or revoked. In the case of any revocation of a certificate, such revocation shall be for a period of time of at least two years.

J. Any applicant, candidate or certificate holder who has been disciplined as provided in subparagraph H above by an ad hoc committee of the Board shall have the right to personal appeal. Such appeal shall be directed to the Chair who shall call a meeting of the Board within one hundred eighty (180) days of the filing of the appeal with the Secretary of the Board. Any appeal shall be limited to the record of the proceedings of the ad hoc committee including, but not limited to, all exhibits plus any written statement of the person charged who pursues a personal appeal. Any action taken by a majority of a quorum of the Board pursuant to such appeal shall be final, and the decision of the Board upon such reconsideration shall be sent to the person appealing within ninety (90) days of the decision of the Board.

K. The personal appeal may again be referred to the ad hoc committee whose decision shall be reviewed by a majority of a quorum of the Board.
